CHESMAR HOMES RECEIVES SUMMIT HONORS

SAN ANTONIO, TX - San Antonio area builders gathered on Saturday, July 23, 2011 at the Omni - Colonnade for the annual awards gala presented by the Greater San Antonio Builders Association. The two-year old Central Texas division of Chesmar Homes walked away with four of the coveted Summit awards presented that evening. "Winning these awards is a wonderful tribute to the dedication, hard work, and enthusiasm of our associates," stated President Ken Trainer. Chesmar office, construction, and sales staff were in attendance to celebrate the company's success at the gala.

Chesmar Homes' New Home Consultant at Buffalo Crossing, Pat O'Flynn was honored as Sales Counselor of the Year (Mid-size Builder). Pat whose known for taking a more informational and educational approach with customers says, "I strive to bring something new and enlightening to every prospect-whether or not it ultimately leads to a sale."

Clint King, Construction Manager for Chesmar's Stillwater Ranch location received the award for Construction Superintendent of the Year (Mid-size Builder). Clint sets communication with home buyers a priority and delegates time weekly to keep home buyers informed about the progress of their new home.

Recognized for "Best Product Design - $200K to $250K" was the "Rainier" model show home in Windgate Run. Don Burrer, Chesmar Homes Director of Design accepted the award for the popular home plan he designed. The plan features a grand foyer, an open floor plan, an unique island table in the kitchen, and an oversized outdoor living area. "Best Interior Design/Merchandising (Volume Builder) $300K to $375K" was awarded for Chesmar's "Calvary" model show home in the Summit at Alamo Ranch which was merchandised by Five Star Interiors design firm.

Chesmar Homes, which celebrated achieving the Builder 100 status in May, 2011 has closed more than 1700 homes in the San Antonio and Houston areas. The company builds in six premier communities around San Antonio including Alamo Ranch and Ridge Creek, offering homes from the $170s to the $370s. For more information readers are invited to visit a Chesmar sales center located in these communities or chesmar.com.
